6. Responsibilities:

RAB volunteers must commit to attend all RAB meetings during the year, which will be held monthly or quarterly at a convenient location. Members missing two consecutive meetings may be asked to resign. RAB members will also review technical documents, provide advice and community concerns to the Army, and communicate information back to the local community.

By submitting this signed application, you agree that you:

- are aware that being a RAB member will involve a set time commitment;
- understand that being a RAB member entails a willingness to work cooperatively with other RAB members to ensure the efficient and effective use of RAB time;
- understand that serving on the RAB will be voluntary and RAB members will not receive compensation for this service; and
- have read and understand the following Privacy Act information regarding providing you name, address and telephone number for this survey.

PRIVACY ACT NOTICE

Authority: 10 U.S. Code (USC) 2705© and 42 USC 9620(f), state and local participation in cleanup of Federal facilities.

Principal Purpose: To identify members of the local community who are interested in participation in the RAB.

Routine Uses: The requested information will be used to develop a list of interested persons from which the community members of the RAB will be selected. The information will also be used by the Army to contact the individuals who are selected.

Disclosure of the requested information is voluntary. Failure to provide all the requested information may prevent selection to the RAB.
