B. REQUIRED ADDITIONAL COMMENTS TO SUPPORT JD. EXPLAIN RATIONALE FOR DETERMINATION THAT THE REVIEW AREA ONLY INCLUDES DRY LAND: Site visit conducted by Corps personnel on October 4, 2019. The site is located immediately adjacent to an existing cabin. Some wetland species were present (juncus, other grass species) supported by snow melt, with a mix of upland species

(young conifers, thistle, wheatgrass). A test pit was dug to more than 20 inches to identify hydric soils and no indicators were found. Soil color was generally dark with no redox features. Lastly, there was no hydrology source and no saturation in the test pit indicating a ground water component. The cabin site is topographically higher than nearby wetlands to the south by more than 2 feet. Based on the information provided by Mr. Decker and our observations on site, we have determined that the proposed cabin building site consists entirely of uplands and no permit would be required for the work.
